

Glenwood PTA Presents
2008- 2009 SPEAKER SERIES

DIANE PROVO
"How To Talk So Kids Will Listen"

Tuesday, September 23rd

7:00 – 8:30p.m.

(45 min. Presentation/ 45 min. Q & A)

Glenwood Elementary Multi-Purpose Room

Mark your calendars! Diane Provo, Child Development Consultant and one of the Bay Area's MOST POPULAR speakers on parenting issues is coming to Glenwood to kick off the 1st event in our Speaker Series! Diane will share with us her insights on "How to Talk So Kids Will Listen". Please join us for an informative and engaging presentation. This is one night you won't want to miss!

With a B.A. in Psychology and a M.S. degree in Education, Diane Provo brings more than 35 years of intensive child development experience from preschool to adolescence. In addition to maintaining her Marin County consulting firm, Diane is also an author and has spent close to 15 years as regular TV personality on the Weekend News show for KRON where she delivered a live parenting segment. She brings a virtual arsenal of child development information and rapid-fire humor to her very popular speaking presentations which she delivers to a wide variety of audiences in the Bay Area and nationwide.

Childcare will be available for School Aged Children by Glenwood Childcare. Please RSVP w/ Jocelyn
Hallroan.